

In Brief

London / Gütersloh / Munich, 12/03/2025

Broadcast Awards 2026 +++ Virtual Private Cloud +++ Yasmin Shakarami Wins ‘Young Adult Book Award’ +++

72 Films Shortlisted For Broadcast Awards

London. The Fremantle company 72 Films is in the running for the Broadcast Awards with three productions shortlisted. The renowned awards recognize the best British TV content and channels of a year. 72 Films was nominated for “Best Independent Company”, and for the two productions “Trump – The Criminal Conspiracy Case” in the “Best Documentary” category, and “The Donald Trump Show” in the “Best Original Programme” category. The Broadcast Awards 2026 will be presented on February 4 at W Marriott Grosvenor House in London.

Arvato Systems Meets The Highest Cloud Testing Standards

(from left): Jörg Schultze-Lutter, Arvato Systems, and André Schreiber, HLB Stückmann, are delighted with the successful completion of the C5 Type 2 effectiveness test for Arvato Systems' Virtual Private Cloud.

Gütersloh. Following an audit by HLB Stückmann, Arvato Systems has passed the C5 attestation (Type 2) for its own Virtual Private Cloud (VPC). The Virtual Private Cloud is part of "Avvia", Arvato Systems' service portfolio for high-performance, enterprise-wide managed cloud IT. With the C5 certification, Arvato Systems meets the strict requirements of the German Federal Office for Information Security (BSI) and emphasizes its leading role in cloud security and compliance. At the same time, the successful audit underscores the company's ability to act as a reliable provider for highly regulated industries such as finance, healthcare, and the public sector. The attestation was carried out by independent auditors. The C5 certification provides companies with reliable guidance in selecting secure cloud services. Jörg Schultze-Lutter, Cloud Compliance Manager at Arvato Systems, said: "The successful C5 attestation for our Virtual Private Cloud is a significant milestone – not only for Arvato Systems, but also for our customers in highly regulated industries such as finance and healthcare. It confirms that our security measures are not only appropriately designed and implemented, but also effective in operation over time."

Yasmin Shakarami Wins 'Salon5 Young Adult Book Award'

Munich. Yasmin Shakarami's novel "Sturmflirren" has won the "Salon5 Young Adult Book Award" in the "Emotions" category. The award is conveyed in six categories by the young adult editors of the nonprofit research network Correctiv. The awards were presented on November 28 in Bottrop. Young adults from all over Germany submit books they really like for the "Salon5 Young Adult Book Awards". 13- to 19-year-olds form the judging panel; they read the books and, in an intensive process, select the titles that receive an award in the different categories.

Yasmin Shakarami receives the Salon5 Youth Book Award for her book Sturmflirren (Storm Flutter).